PICTURE YOUR STORY

Congratulations on your engagement! I feel like photography is one of the most important parts of a wedding. 20 years from now, you may not remember what your cake tasted like or the funniest part of the best man's speech, but you do have the moments captured in photos. It's a big responsibility, creating memories for 20 years from now. But, I love it, and I would love to photograph your wedding. Please take a look at the included packages and help me make sure we picture your story exactly how you want it to be.
